

Montag Leadership Award 2020

The Montag Leadership Award was established in memory of Mildred Montag who was the founder of associate degree nursing education. This award is presented to a student who has excelled academically and demonstrated potential for leadership in the nursing profession. According to Huber, the characteristics of a leader are knowledge, maturity, initiative, competence, and responsibility.

