Do Something That Matters
Housing Operations

- In September, there were 4 residential students quarantined, with 3 of those returning home with 1 remaining on campus. Housing staff coordinated meal delivery for meals for the one person this month.
- October 11 - Spring Housing applications opened. As of October 29, there have been 4 transfer housing applications completed and 1 new freshman housing application completed.
- Best Room on Campus has begun, with the first round of competition taking place with rooms going head-to-head on Instagram stories. The finalists will have their rooms photographed by the Housing Marketing Specialist, with a final round of voting taking place in early November.
- Resident feedback surveys were sent to on-campus residents on October 25, with a completion deadline of November 7.

Residence Life

- Each staff participated in the UWA Homecoming Banner competition, with the Reed/Patterson/Selden staff placing 2nd and Gilbert winning 3rd place. The Housing Office participated in the Door Decorating competition, placing 2nd for a 2nd year in a row. UWA Housing was also represented on the Homecoming Court – AC Chelcy (Gilbert AHD) and Jayla Nash (Gilbert RA) were selected for the court, and Deja Jones (Gilbert RA) made it to the ballot for Sophomore Maid.
- RAs received midterm evaluations from the hall directors this month. This evaluation helps the staff identify areas to improve, ways they are excelling, and other information to help them be the best student leader possible.
- During the Housing All Staff meeting in October, the following staff members were recognized for their outstanding performance for September/October:
  - Eboni Blair, Tre Bowers, Crysson Kornegay, and Taylor Cunningham – Program of the Month for their Karaoke Night at Gilbert Hall
  - Deja Jones – Flyer of the Month for her Pajama Party flyer
  - McKenna Darley, Gilbert Hall – Bulletin Board of the Month for her board, Don’t Be A Witch, about living with your roommate and resolving conflict.
  - Caroline Humphrey, Gilbert Hall – Door Decorations of the Month for individually created monsters in various shapes, colors, and sizes
  - Gabi Newsome – Newsletter of the Month
  - Lee Stephens, Gilbert Hall – RA of the Month

October was a great month! A special Thank You goes out to the many people that helped make the month a success including, Chief Josette White and her staff, the physical plant, and all others that assisted throughout the month. Also, thank you to Dr. Alan Brown for hosting our walking ghost tours.

The Homecoming Court boasted 38 nominees and Chloe Johnson was crowned homecoming queen.
